

Just when we thought it could not get any worse, we are cut off from the outside world !

No you are not imagining it, apparently about 20 men with various diggers and stuff turned up bright and early on Tuesday morning, and when we arrived at 9am to open up, we were met with barriers everywhere.

Throughout the day they dug and dug and dug, then disappeared and on Wednesday, some nice and happy TWO MEN set about, yes you have guessed it, more digging and digging and digging

It is now late Friday (today) and it now looks like the battlefield on the Somme.

Now this little (did we really say that) activity came without any warning or discussion of any type and we now just found out from the town hall, that they are going to build, and wait for it, a ROUNDABOUT, right slap bang outside the gates.

Needless to say, nobody works week ends, so we remain somewhat stuck, and any visitors we were hoping might come and see us, NOW CAN'T GET IN!

RED CROSS FOOD PARCELS NEEDED !

As no one seems to know (OR IS NOT SAYING) how big it is going to be, we are kipping in the Sanctuary 24/7 until we can resolve this, as for all we know, they may just decide to keep digging inwards, as they might just “need a bit more land” !!!!!!!!!!!

We have just been told, by the DIGGERS, that they have not got the final plans yet !!! but it is just going to be “SMALL ROUNDABOUT” - As it is a dead end, and there is no through traffic or any traffic other than us or the builders next door (and they know nothing about it either) the mind boggles as to why they want to do it, unless of course, well, enough said !!!!!!!!!!!

JUST IN CASE ANYONE IS TRYING TO VISIT US !!!!!
SOON, PLEASE !!!!

You will need to just park up the road (there are plenty of places) and just “hoof it” down to see us.

Our friendly neighbours in the gas yard opposite are happy if anyone wants to park in there (but keep the front clear), but then you will to run the busy (we hope) N340 across to us.

XMAS PARTIES ARE STILL ON

We are hopeful (NO blinking option !) that we will get pedestrian access fairly quickly (otherwise it is off to the Court we gallop) and that it will not spoil our two planned parties on the Saturday 20th and Saturday 27th December, so if anyone (please !) is trying to visit us over Xmas, don't forget these two dates as we have (donated) mulled wine and mince pies (thanks to Arkwrights) and lots of raffles with great prizes donated by lots of lovely locals and businesses wanting to try to help us keep open.

LATEST UPDATE

Well, the latest is that the Town hall appears to have taken over the bit of land next door, yes the one we used to park in, and are going to make it into a garden !!!!!!!!! and need a roundabout ? !

urghhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh
