

Hi All

well despite all the horrible stuff going on, we thought you might like to see some nice picis and stuff of our (almost !) open day, Saturday 20th December and don't forget if anyone ! (did we say that !) is coming to Nerja for Xmas, we have another open day next Saturday, 27th December as well.

The kids club were all here getting things ready for the visitors !!!!! but they all had a great time.

So Merry Xmas to all and the January newsletter should be out, well in early January !!!!!

PS NEWS UPDATES.....DOES NERJA LOVE US ??????  Wednesday afternoon, we have 5 lovely visitors in (at last) and in come three policia local (Town hall police), Visitors out.. we want to take pictures of "what's going on" ... "You can't have dogs here !!!!!, and "where is all the dogs (and your papers) ", despite them being provided about 20 times before ! More after nice pictures..... on page 2

Police visit.... Get our lawyer on phone,.... “they can’t come in and chuck people out.. put them on the phone”.... No chance as the enforcers ignore request to talk to them.

Have not a clue as to what that was all about !!!!!!!

Saturday 20th, during open day.. in comes nice Guardia Captain, deadly quite descends as all think the worst (except volunteers, as we thought he was coming for some mulled wine!) and asks us to temporarily take in a dog that the Policia Local had dumped at the Guardia Station as “they were all closed for the week end!”

Now, the policia local is responsible for dogs etc in the town and has recently embarked upon catching any loose dogs.. but the pound does not open at week ends (hardly ever open anyway) .. so they dumped this dog at the Guardia !

Now nice Guardia Captain knows about Policia local visit and them muttering about “no dogs etc” and says stuff them they have no authority so we will sort it... Off he goes and comes back later with lovely one year old female beagle and says “ he will sort it on Monday” - To be on the safe side, volunteer has taken dog home for week end.

AS FOR THE “ROUNDABOUT” - NEEDLESS TO SAY, AFTER A FEW DAY OF MAKING ACCESS TO US DIFFICULT, NO ONE HAS BEEN SEEN SINCE , AND WE HAVE NO, ERR, ROUNDABOUT, JUST A DUG UP ROAD AND NO PAVEMENT..... This is just a picture of our lovely mulled wine bubbling away happily...

Lots of love and kisses from all at Nerja
